

HOUSE BILL 3202/CHAPTER 896

CIVIL REMEDIAL FEES

New Virginia Code § 46.2-206.1

This is a general explanation of the new civil remedial fees. It has been prepared by staff of the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court, which is the administrative office of the Virginia court system. It has not been reviewed by the Justices of the Supreme Court of Virginia. It does not represent an order of or statement by the Supreme Court of Virginia. This general explanation is meant neither as legal advice nor as a “how to” guide. Any questions regarding a court’s assessment of the civil remedial fee in a particular instance should be directed to your attorney or to the court assessing the fee.

During its 2007 Session, the General Assembly of Virginia passed House Bill 3202 (Chapter 896), which was designed to provide additional funds to address various transportation needs in the Commonwealth. (See this link for the bill: <http://leg1.state.va.us/cgi-bin/legp504.exe?ses=071&typ=bil&val=hb3202>.) The legislation requires agencies and branches of state government which implement parts of the legislation to make accessible to the public information about those efforts.

(1) Civil Remedial Fees. The legislation creates “civil remedial fees” to be assessed against Virginia residents convicted of certain motor vehicle-related or driving crimes. These civil remedial fees will not apply to traffic infractions like failure to obey a highway sign or failure to yield or parking too near a hydrant. They apply only to certain motor vehicle-related or driving felonies and misdemeanors (certain motor vehicle-related or driving offenses which are crimes). The civil remedial fees will be assessed against juveniles who have been found delinquent because they committed one of these motor vehicle-related or driving felonies or misdemeanors. The civil remedial fees will not be assessed if the juvenile court defers a final judgment against the juvenile and does not find the juvenile to be delinquent.

(2) Purpose. The statute states the purpose of these fees is “to generate revenue from drivers whose proven dangerous driving behavior places significant financial burdens upon the Commonwealth.”

(3) Effective date. These fees are assessed upon convictions of the applicable offenses only if the crime was committed on or after July 1, 2007.

(4) An additional fee. In one important way, these fees are like court costs. That is, if the fee is applicable to a particular conviction, the court must assess the entire civil remedial fee. However, these civil remedial fees cannot be suspended or reduced. Instead, by law, an applicable civil remedial fee must be assessed by the court in full. Finally, the law provides that “The civil remedial fees established by this section shall be in addition to any other fees, costs, or penalties imposed pursuant to the Code of Virginia.”

(5) Virginia residents only. The civil remedial fee is applicable to Virginia “residents” convicted of these crimes. The law provides that “The civil remedial fees established by this section shall be assessed on any resident of Virginia operating a motor vehicle on the highways of Virginia, including persons to whom Virginia driver’s licenses, commercial driver’s licenses, or learner’s permits have been issued pursuant to this title; and persons operating motor vehicles without licenses or whose license has been revoked or suspended.”

(6) Three-part fee. The civil remedial fees are imposed in three equal parts. If the fee applies, the court will order the first part of the fee to be paid to the court following the conviction. The court will also order that the second part of the fee must be paid to the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) within 14 months and, then, that the third part of the fee must be paid within 26 months of the conviction. DMV will tell people who owe the second and third parts of the civil remedial fees when those parts of their fees will be due.

(7) Fee schedule. The civil remedial fees are as follows:

(a) Driving on a suspended license: $250 to the court upon conviction, with two additional payments of $250 each due to DMV, one within 14 months of conviction and the other within 26 months of conviction.

(b) Reckless driving: $350 to the court upon conviction, with two additional payments of $350 each due to DMV, one within 14 months of conviction and the other within 26 months of conviction.

(c) DUI and related offenses (§§ 18.2-266, -266.1, 46.2-341.24): $750 to the court upon conviction, with two additional payments of $750 each due to DMV, one within 14 months of conviction and the other within 26 months of conviction.

(d) Other misdemeanors, “Any other misdemeanor conviction for a driving and/or motor vehicle related violation of Title 18.2 or [Title 46.2] that is not included in one of the preceding three subdivisions”: $300 to the court upon conviction, with two additional payments of $300 each due to DMV, one within 14 months of conviction and the other within 26 months of conviction.

(e) Felony convictions, “Any felony conviction for a driving or motor vehicle-related offense under Title 18.2 or [Title 46.2]”: $1,000 to the court upon conviction, with two additional payments of $1,000 each due to DMV, one within 14 months of conviction and the other within 26 months of conviction.

(8) Installment or deferred payment plans. Civil remedial fees paid to the courts (the first part of the three-part civil remedial fee) may be included in the installment or deferred payment plans which courts use now for the payment of fines and costs, upon request and approval. The judge or the clerk of the court which convicts the person sets up the payment plan. These court-ordered installment or deferred payment plans will not apply to second and third parts of the civil remedial fee, which are to be paid to DMV.

(9) Prepayable offenses. The civil remedial fees do apply to two motor vehicle-related or driving misdemeanors which are on the table of so-called “prepayable” offenses. When an offense is prepayable, the accused person may plead guilty by paying to the court before the trial date the entire prepayable fine and court costs. Because these two offenses require the civil remedial fee, a person prepaying one of these two offenses must pay to the court not only the set prepayable fine and court costs, but also the first part of the three part civil remedial fee (the part due to the court). If the entire amount due for the prepayable offense is not sent to the court at the same time, the court cannot accept the payment. Once the civil remedial fees become effective, the references in the table of prepayable offenses to these two offenses will look like this:

Rule 3C:2. Uniform Fine Schedule.

|---|-----------------------|--|----------------|-------|
| Drinking alcoholic beverage while driving motor vehicle | 18.2-323.1 | $35 (Plus $900 civil remedial fee due in three payments: $300 due to court with fine and costs, $300 payment due to DMV within 14 months of conviction, and $300 payment due to DMV within 26 months of conviction. Civil remedial fee applicable to VA residents only.) | $61 | $396 |
| Refusing officer’s order to drive vehicle to weighing station | 46.2-1137 | $35 (Plus $900 civil remedial fee due in three payments: $300 due to court with fine and costs, $300 payment due to DMV within 14 months of conviction, and $300 payment due to DMV within 26 months of conviction. Civil remedial fee applicable to VA residents only.) | $61 | $396 |

(10) List of offenses. Following is the list of the offenses to which civil remedial fees are applicable. The list is arranged numerically by citation to the Code of Virginia. It contains a brief description of the offense, a reference to the part of the statute imposing the particular fee, the amount of the civil remedial fee, and the “class” of the offense (which indicates how serious is the particular offense). The offenses are color-coded to reflect both the particular paragraph of subsection C of § 46.2-206.1 and the specific civil remedial fee.

Here is that subsection of the statute, with the colors imposed to match up with the following list:

§ 46.2-206.1 (C). The court shall assess a person with the following fees upon each conviction of the following offenses:

1. Driving while his driver’s license was suspended or revoked pursuant to § 18.2-272, 46.2-301, 46.2-302, 46.2-341.21, or 46.2-391 shall be assessed a fee to be paid in three annual payments of $250 each;

2. Reckless driving in violation of Article 7 (§ 46.2-852 et seq.) of Chapter 8 or aggressive driving in violation of § 46.2-868.1 shall be assessed a fee to be paid in three annual payments of $350 each;

3. Driving while intoxicated in violation of § 18.2-266, 18.2-266.1, or 46.2-341.24 shall be assessed a fee to be paid in three annual payments of $750 each;

4. Any other misdemeanor conviction for a driving and/or motor vehicle related violation of Title 18.2 or this title that is not included in one of the preceding three subdivisions shall be assessed a fee to be paid in three annual payments of $300 each; and

5. Any felony convictions for a driving or motor vehicle-related offense under Title 18.2 or this title, shall be assessed a fee to be paid in three annual payments of $1,000 each.
